GOLDEN NOTE

Known throughout her home state of Florida as “Golden Note”, Jennifer Gilmore is a living, breathing testimony to the truth that drives her extraordinary career – her belief that music makes the difference. A dynamic vocal powerhouse, her stylistic diversity, easy charm and soulful charisma has conquered the hearts of music fans of all ages. In addition to hundreds of live performances in a wide variety of venues and settings – including restaurants, clubs, festivals, conferences, corporate events, weddings, receptions and galas - her ever-expanding resume of accolades includes the impressive “3rd Round Finalist for the TV show “X Factor”. In sheer numbers, this means that out of 8,000 who auditioned in Miami, she made it to the final 100 – the last round before the singers we see on TV.

Developing an artistry that goes beyond her long-held status as “great vocalist”, Jennifer has created several live shows centered on specific concepts. These include, “Holiday Extravaganza”, “Dynamic Divas” “The Best of Broadway and Cinema” and “Timeless Hits”. In these shows, she complements her vast repertoire of songs with personal stories of what they mean to her as well as fun and playful banter with her audiences. Last year, she released the first CD in the series titled: Let There Be Light featuring songs from the Holiday Extravaganza Show.

The budding success of Dynamic Divas, Jennifer’s newest themed show, which features her spot on, chill-inducing renditions of classics by Diva’s such as her all-time favorite, Barbra Streisand, along with Whitney Houston, Karen Carpenter, Dolly Parton, Celine Dion, Vicki Carr and Adele, has led to a natural demand for a recording that documents her incredible renditions of these artists’ most renowned hits. It’s an extraordinary multi-decade journey that flows from “Close To You” through “Skyfall”. Streisand’s songs were easy foundational choices for Jennifer. After developing a love for Dolly Parton’s personality she added this Diva to her line-up along with the often-overlooked catalog of Vicki Carr, whose songs: “It Must Be Him” and “With Pen in Hand” resonated so powerfully with her that she included them in her show.

“The most wonderful part of what I do is that I now sing for thousands of people those songs that made a huge impact on my life and my musical development as a young girl,” says Jennifer, who is also developing as a songwriter in her own right, having written two songs and currently working on a third. “A great song is one that takes you somewhere beyond yourself and has the ability to pull deep emotion out of you in a way nothing else can”.

ON STAGE

While the Fort Myers, Florida, based vocalist has performed most of her live shows in the Sunshine State, the depth and adaptability of her performances – and her fresh interactions with her audiences - ensure that she'll be performing in many other places very soon. Over the past few years, while playing more than 20 gigs per month, she has booked hundreds of shows, including corporate events, country clubs, networking events, dinner dances, weddings, receptions, galas, fundraisers, convention entertainment, private parties, holiday gatherings and themed events. Among her many high profile performances are those at the Fort Myers Italian Festival, the Korean War Veteran's Annual Conference in Orlando, FL, the Annual Proton Therapy Fund Raiser for Shands Hospital and singing the National Anthem multiple times for The Miracle's Baseball Team, along with the opening game between the Boston Red Sox and the Minnesota Twins in addition to performing it for multiple Everblades Hockey and Championship games.

MUSIC

The 14 track CD Dynamic Divas gives it's listeners a wonderful introduction to an extraordinary singer. Her power and versatility follows perfectly in the footsteps of the wide range of vocalists she covers and allows her voice and emotion center stage. In addition to the two Barbra Streisand classics, she pays homage to Whitney Houston with "I Will Always Love You" and "One Moment in Time"; Karen Carpenter with "Close To You" and "Masquerade"; Celine Dion with "My Heart Will Go On" and "The Power of Love"; and Adele with "Skyfall" and "Set Fire To the Rain." It's interesting to note that Jennifer only began tapping into the genius of Dolly Parton after listening to her audio book. In light of that, the inclusion of the Dolly classics "Little Sparrow" and "Here You Come Again" is extra fascinating. Perhaps the nicest surprises are the great Vicki Carr songs that were also a later discovery and not the songs people usually think of when they think of Divas. For those who see Jennifer's show, this recording is the ultimate souvenir. For new listeners, it's an open door to an emerging new talent.

FROM THE BEGINNING

The development of Jennifer's unique style is the result of a lifetime of musical influence. Growing up in a talented musical family meant that Jennifer, a native of Bartow, Florida, was always surrounded by different forms of music. Both parents had musical and performance backgrounds, along with an extensive list of both immediate family and relatives with impressive professional careers in the entertainment industry, which helped expose her to a wealth of music as a child and impacted her development as a vocalist and performer.

After moving to Fort Myers, FL, Jennifer joined a group as their lead female singer. The repertoire of that group, which sang everything from Elvis and Sinatra to all the great female divas, became a springboard for Jennifer becoming a solo performer.

REVIEW

“Considering Jennifer “Golden Note” Gilmore’s incredible success performing in so many different styles and in so many unique settings these past years, clearly we’re only getting a tiny glimpse of what she can do on this project. But what a glimpse – and what an earful of amazing vocals that honors each song and artist with deep respect but also take the listener on many powerful new journeys. Jennifer’s marvelous voice is a revelation – and it’s clear she’s fast becoming a “Dynamic Diva” (minus the attitude, of course!) herself. It’s exciting to imagine where that voice will take her in the coming years!” – Jonathan Widran, Music Journalist
